 Defendants.

The parties hereby submit to the Court a list of the electronic equipment to be used during trial and request the Court enter an Order permitting the following electronic and audio-visual equipment to be used to provide for the display of depositions, demonstratives, exhibits and graphics - all of which will aid the Court and Jury in reviewing the presentations and evidence submitted during trial:

- 1) One Canon Video Visualizer (Commonly referred to as an "Elmo");
- 2) One LCD Projector;
- 3) Three Laptop computers;
- 4) Two External Hard Drives;
- 5) Two Small Tables;
- 6) Two tri-pods;
- 7) Two platen tops for tri-pods;
- 8) A set of portable stereo speakers;
- 9) Large tripod projection screen; and

10) A large bag with various cables, power cords, power strips, and other items for cable safety.

The above listed equipment will be brought into the courtroom and operated by Andrew Lloyd, of Litigation Media Group, LLC, and its designated agents.

The Court has inherent power to manage the proceedings for it and its courtrooms. See United States v. Grace, 526 F.3d 499, 509 (9th Cir. 2008) (“Judges exercise substantial discretion over what happens inside the courtroom. [Citations] We have accepted that ‘[a]ll federal courts are vested with inherent powers enabling them to manage their cases and courtrooms effectively...’ [Citations].”)

The parties are working together to coordinate the shared use of the equipment (excluding the laptops). The parties jointly request that the Court grant this Application and enter an order permitting Andrew Lloyd of Litigation Media Group, LLC, and its designated agents, to bring and use the above listed equipment into the Courtroom on August 19, 2011.
